

Adult Volunteer Waiver

I hereby acknowledge that during the Esplanade volunteer event, sponsored by The Esplanade Association (TEA), TEA is not responsible for ensuring in any way the safety of any activities at the event. Any decisions I make on whether to participate in any activities at the event are my personal responsibility. I acknowledge that it is my responsibility to be aware of the inherent risks involved in the various activities that may be available during the event. The Esplanade Association is not undertaking any duty to assure my safety. I hereby waive and release any and all legal claims that I, my heirs, successors or assigns may have against TEA for any injuries or damages in any way related to my participation in the event. Further, I agree to indemnify and hold harmless TEA against any claims for injuries or damages arising out of or in any way related to my activities at the event. I hereby give TEA permission to use my picture in printed and electronic materials which have to do with the work of TEA. This permission applies to any and all photographs which you have taken this day of me, or previously taken photos which you have shown me today. All negatives and prints shall constitute the property of TEA.
